

A young man and woman are smiling and clinking their wine glasses in a toast. They are seated at a wooden table in a restaurant with a rustic, paneled wall. In front of them is a large, sizzling steak dish with vegetables and bread. There are also small bowls of condiments and a glass of water on the table. The man is wearing a dark blue polo shirt, and the woman is wearing a brown patterned top. The wine glasses have the 'Pelle's' logo on them.
